

Make Many Arrests In Alabama On Distilling Charges

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Feb. 10 (Sp.)—Deputy Marshal Hackworth has made numerous arrests of persons charged with illicit distilling during the last few days. U. G. Sanderson was arrested at Sheffield for operating a still in his home in one of the principal residence sections of his town. Frank J. Jefferson was arrested in Lawrence county and Yancy, Chen and Dick Brown were arrested in Courtland. BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss., Feb. 10 (Sp.)—Dr. R. A. Dr. Kimbrough will have charge of the third district, made up of about 15 counties in this part of the state. He will keep his family here and will use Blue Mountain as his official base.

NOT A CASE OF FLU IN BLUE MOUNTAIN

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss., Feb. 10 (Sp.)—Blue Mountain college has not yet developed a case of Spanish influenza among either faculty or student body. To prevent infection, however, President W. T. There were 184 cases of influenza at the college last season, without a single death.
